Two queens from a different time go on a camping trip, far away from court. Without servants, they use their creativity to “survive” in the wild. Their castle is reduced to basic tents, royal dances have to be executed on grass. One even needs to fish for lunch and cope with the unpredictable whims of Mother Nature... Corpus brings its world-renowned blend of comedy and whimsical choreography to this surprising show bound to engage children in innovative ways. Camping Royale is a twisted fairy tale for all ages, not to be missed!
